Statement Says War Council Has Distributed $6,175,-752 Up to July 31.

"Through the generosity and big heartedness of the people," says Henry p. Davison, chairman of the Red Cross War Council, in a statement reporting the finance and other facts concerning the organization, "the American Red Cross has undertaken the most stupendous effort in the history of mankind to elleve suffering and distress." Although the accounts of the Red Cross are regularly audited by the War pepartment and an annual statement is made to Congress, the purpose of the War Council, Mr. Davison says, is to take the people day by day as fully as possible into its confidence. This year's convention, it is declared, will be one of the most important in the history of the organisation, as it is expected that action will be taken upon the no-called "diocesan plan," under which it is proposed to affiliate all Catholic bodies in the country with the American Federation. There are 110 diocesses in the country, and if the plan is put into effect, the federation officials may, its membership will be increased from 3,000,000 to about 18,000,000.

The plan was proposed at the 1916 convention, and it was decided to take action this year. The movement was independ at a conference of the American Techbishops in Washington some time ago. The American Federation is time ago. The American Federation is the largest Catholic body in the country, and a number of large organizations already are affiliated with it. The piocesan plan would bring all of the smaller societies into affiliation. How the Roman Catholics of America

Portland, and Messmer, Milwaukee.

An elaborate programme has been arranged by the members of the local branch. The convention will open Sunday morning, August 26, with a pontifical high mass, with Mgr. Bonzano as celebrant. The sermon will be delivered by Archbishop Glennon. In the evening there will be a mass meeting in Convention Hall, over which Archbishop Glennon will preside. Addresses of welcome will be delivered by Bishop Thomas F. Lallis of Kansas City, Mayor George Edwards, Kansas City, Mayor George Edwards, Kansas City, and John Whalen, New York, president of the federation. The principal addresses will be by Mgr.
